knowledge of the language.

Title: Arabic

Commitment to:

- attend at least 70% of the classed rab0.-1.185c tcitleArabchou0 T6c sle:
- study outside the classroom for at least two hours per week

e T11.3 (nt)-16.9 1r T15.3 (y1 0 T7s261 0 Td [41it)1 (le)

- · complete homework
- buy the course book

To enable students to:

- to reach level A1 of the Common European Framework
- to cope with a selection of basic and predictable everyday life situations in a target language speaking environment.
- to establish the skills required for further study of Arabic

On completion of this module, students should be able to:

· demonstrate an

es:

in insight into the business etiquette of the target atries

e basic strnsu(⋅)Tj /offt2het fEfrge337 0 Td ( )Tj -0.002 0 T0 nn

- obtain information and understand spoken messages in a limited context
- deal orally with a limited selection of basic and predictable activities
- obtain information from essential signs and notices
- write simple messages, emails, formal and infformal

Main topics of study: